Petition for Waiver of Authority Rule)	DOCKET NO. 04-_____ Rule 1220 – 4 – 2 – .55(d)(2))

PETITION OF SPRINT COMMUNICATIONS COMPANY, L.P. FOR WAIVER OF AUTHORITY RULE 1220 – 4 – 2 – .55(d)(2)

Sprint Communications Company, L.P. (“Sprint”) by and through undersigned counsel seek waiver of Authority Rule 1220 – 4 – 2 – .55(d)(2) as it applies to three of Sprint’s most recent informational tariffs filed with the Authority for intrastate interLATA services. Specifically, the informational tariff filings for which Sprint seeks a waiver are tariff revisions to Sprint’s Tennessee Tariff T.R.A. No. 3.

The first informational tariff was filed with the Authority on August 30, 2004, one day prior to its effective date of September 1, 2004.¹ The two other informational tariffs are to be filed under separate cover with the Authority on September 8, 2004.² These tariffs increase rates to various Sprint intrastate interLATA services provided under T.R.A. No. 3. Each one of these increases has been implemented by providing Sprint’s long distance (intrastate interLATA) customers with thirty days notice as required by Authority Rule 1220 – 4 – 2 – .55(d)(2), however, Sprint has not provided the Authority with the thirty day notice period as also provided for by the rule.

¹ A copy of the cover letter and tariff mailed to the Authority on August 27, 2004 is attached hereto as Exhibit A.

² A copy of the letters and tariff revisions are attached hereto as Exhibits B and C respectively. The first goes into effect on September 15, 2004 (Exhibit B), and the second going into effect on October 1, 2004 (Exhibit C)

Sprint now understands that its actions were incorrect, and the Authority does in fact continue to require that thirty days notice be given to the Authority for all increases to intrastate interLATA services. Sprint assures the Authority that it has corrected this misunderstanding, and that Sprint will fully comply with Rule 1220 – 4 – 2 – .55(d)(2) as it has been instructed to do so by the Authority’s Staff. Sprint does want to assure the Authority that no customer harm has occurred during Sprint’s period of partial non-compliance with Rule 1220 – 4 – 2 – .55(d)(2) as all affected customers have in fact been given the requisite thirty days notice.

Sprint did not intentionally dismiss some of the requirements of Rule 1220 – 4 – 2 – .55(d)(2). When Tenn. Code Ann. § 65-4-101(9) was amended, this 2001 amendment relieved the Authority of its rate-making obligations as they applied to interexchange carriers such as Sprint. Since Sprint’s intrastate interLATA rates no longer came under the jurisdiction or the regulatory oversight of the Authority, Sprint instead believed that since the Authority lacked the jurisdiction and the regulatory oversight regarding intrastate interLATA rates that any increases to the same no longer required thirty days notice with the Authority prior to the effective date for such increases. In addition, Sprint relied on the fact that several other Sprint increases that have been filed after March 2001, went into effect with only one day notice to the Authority.

Sprint requests that the recent informational tariff filings be permitted to go into effect on the effective dates already listed, and that the requirements of Rule 1220 – 4 – 2 – .55(d)(2) be waived. The waiver that Sprint requests is contemplated under Rule 1220 – 4 – 2 – .55(d)(2), which states in pertinent as follows:

“[n]o tariff filing submitted pursuant to this rule that increases rates or changes terms and conditions which result in an increase in the billed rate of any service shall take effect sooner than thirty (30) days after notice to the Authority, unless otherwise directed by the Authority." (Emphasis added to the original).

The tariff revision filed by Sprint on August 30, 2004 already went into effect on September 1, 2004, however, the other two informational tariffs do not go into effect until September 15 and October 1, 2004. Customers have already been appropriately noticed, and the rates are not subject to the oversight by the Authority.

WHEREFORE, based on the foregoing, Sprint respectfully requests that the informational tariff revisions attached hereto as Exhibits A, B and C be permitted to go into effect as noticed, and that an order be entered memorializing the granting of this petition.

Respectfully Submitted,

SPRINT COMMUNICATIONS COMPANY, L.P.
